Millie Allen

Myrtle Beach

Millie Allen, loving wife, mother and grandmother, died on Wednesday, February 10, 2016.

Born in Camden, NJ, Millie was a daughter of the late Clarence Charles and Mildred Beck. Millie enjoyed making ceramics, traveling, attending flea markets and going out to eat, but her two loves besides her family were Mickey Mouse and Christmas. In addition to her parents, Millie was preceded in death by two brothers; Charles and Frank Beck and a granddaughter BunBun.

Survivors include her husband Norman H. Allen Sr of Myrtle Beach; children Robert Phillips, Linda Altman, Georgeanna McConnell, Norman H. Allen Jr, Barbara Reimels, Michael Allen; 16 grandchildren, 14 great grandchildren; a sister Barbara DiMingo (Daniel); a sister-in-law Diana Sayers (Larry Cannizzaro); numerous nieces and nephews and good friends George and Reta Johnson.

A Memorial Service will be held at 11:00 AM Friday, March 4, 2016 at Socastee Church of God.

The family requests that memorial donations be made in Millie's name to Shriners Children Hospital, 950 West Farris Rd, Greenville, SC 29605.

“ Dear Norm and family:

My wife and I were saddened to learn of Millie's passing. We are praying that God will give you the strength to help you get through this most difficult time. I remember the times I went to visit at the house or running into Norm and Millie at Walmart. You will always have those fond memories of your wife, Mom and Grandma. Cherish them with each other. We send our condolences to the whole family.

“ Dear mom mom I will never forget raiding your basement for arts and craft, painting ceramics and tuper ware parties. Also I remember you taking me to Mary Kay make up show and I still order their cinnamon red lipstick.... I remember bbq outside in Audubon and riding the tractor around the back yard. I will never forget us getting into your good crafts and start making thing only for you to come down and yell because we were told not to touch that sidw 😊 I am sorry I did not spend a lot of time with you but you have always and will always remain at the top of my heart love you and miss you greatly
