Tribute Wall

“ To the Gore Family: Please accept my deepest condolences at this time for the loss of your dear loved one. Everyone has experienced the loss of a loved one, yet it is never easy to deal with. I have learned through the bible that death is not something intended by God for man to experience. Almighty God's purpose for man was to inhabit the earth and remain forever, according to Ps. 37:29. I have found hope by means of the bible, to not be ignorant as the rest who have no hope concerning those sleeping in death 1Thes. 4:13. There is a an actual hope laid out for those who have passed away. John 5: 28,29 lets us know that there will be a resurrection of those who are now deceased. May you find comfort in reading and meditating on this from the words of your own bible and gain confidence in the hope of a resurrection!###imported-begin###F. Allston###imported-end###
