“JoAnn you and your family are in my thoughts. I am so sorry to hear about your Mom. She was such a southern lady that loved her family and friends. She and Fannie had such a good times visiting in the afternoon under the "Oak Tree". Sorry I will not be in town this week-end but know I will be thinking of you and keeping you in my prayers !!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4
