“ Mitzi made life richer for those privileged to know her. As a friend and neighbor, I welcomed the wisdom and fun of her "side of the driveway" chats as one of us stopped either on Berry Tree or Hickory Drive. Whether a quick wave on her way from the pool (CCU and Myrtle Trace), a cup of tea in her kitchen, or appreciating a treasure from her Saturday yard sale discoveries, the moments were lively. Oh! and how much she loved her family. My sympathy, too, to Luise Henry, ever loyal. You worked hard and accomplished in life, Mitzi. Rest in peace.
