“ Mrs. Ward was a wonderful person and educator. She was definitely a credit to the teaching profession. Mrs. Ward made a difference in so many lives. Not only did she teach academics, more importantly, she also taught us positive character traits. I am proud to say that she was one of my mentors, and I respected her greatly. Former students, including me, loved her dearly. It is peaceful to know that Mrs. Ward is now in God's loving care. Thoughts and prayers are rendered to her special family.
