“ Pricilla, Greg and Kim, we read of Mel's / your dad death in the Virginia Gazette and were very sorry to read of it. He was, to us, a quiet sincere man who loved his wife and children. We just wanted you all to know how sorry we were to read of his death and wanted you to know that we were thinking of you. If you are ever back us this way, give us a call. Very sincerely, Sharon and Mike Sams (formerly of Wellspring and Lafayette/Jamestown). Sharon's last year teaching is half way over and I am at Walsingham.##imported-begin##Sharon/Michael Sams##imported-end##

“ Priscilla, We were so sorry to read of Mel's death. Please accept our deepest sympathy. May your many loving memories give you comfort at this difficult time. We are still so happy to be in the Villages of Westminster. It was one of the best decisions of our lives. Thank you again for all your help back in 1999. “ Dear Causey Family, There is a sacredness in tears. They are not the mark of weakness, but of power. They speak more eloquently than 10,000 tongues. They are the messengers of overwhelming grief, of deep contrition, and of unspeakable love. - Washington Irving###imported-begin##Diane L. Todman###imported-end##

“ Dear Priscilla, Pat joins me in extending sincere sympathies in your loss of Mel. Although there aren't a lot of old timers in the Williamsburg program these days there are quite a few who have fond memories of you two at the Friday night meeting. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your two children and their families. Much love, Jim & Pat###imported-begin##Jim & Pat Dunn###imported-end##

“ Dear Priscilla, I saw the news about Mel in the paper this morning and am so sorry to hear it. I've thought of you and Mel often since I last saw you both. You were so nice and helpful when Leonard sold his house and when I called you now and then with the need to talk. My daughter is married and in Louisville now, heading home today for Thanksgiving. I'll keep you in my prayers today and for the next months since I know how hard they can be. Love, Mary Ann (Melfi)##imported-begin##Mary Ann Melfi##imported-end##

“ We just wanted you and your family to know that we only knew Mel for 2 years, but we know what a kind and loving person that loved the Lord. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers in this difficult time but we know that Mel is looking down on all of you and just singing to the Lord. We love you all.##imported-begin##Larry and Becky Thornton##imported-end##

“ Just thinking about my friend, Mel today, Just wondering what he might be saying, To everyone he is seeing in heaven right now, Singing the Hallelujah course and making a great sound. A sound of rejoicing and praising beyond our thoughts, Worshiping God the almighty with all his heart. My friend Mel, the greatest "trash talker" ever.##imported-begin##Elwin Miles##imported-end##
