“ I drive past Crown Trophy at least 6 times a week and still have vivid memories of giggles with Moe, a few beers here and there and our dogs trying hard to get along together. With a world full of Moe's there would be no conflicts!!!!##imported-begin##Allan & Van Ruttley##imported-end##

“ About a year ago we bought a base station and it seemed that Moe and Phil come with it. Who was Moe and Phil? Little did we know how blessed we were. Moe taught us so much about business and living up to your word. What a sad loss we feel and at the same time we thankful he passed our way. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. “ Dear Kim, Jack and Tori, Nora and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for the loss of our good neighbor, Moe. Even, sadder we are that we did not have a chance to say ?Good By? to him. His passing went so fast, so quick and so early. Both, we will always remember his ?friendly smile?. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers during these difficult times. “ My sincere condolences to Kim and the entire family. Sadly, its been many years since I last saw or spoke with Moe. However, I will always have the memories of the great times we all had at Schroon Lake, or "Schroonieville" as we used to call it. As sad a time as this is, a smile comes to my face when I remember the fun I had at the lake with Ted Schultz, Richie Meyers and "Moe & Pebbles".##imported-begin##STEVE LANDRY##imported-end##
