

Muriel Quinn Craig

January 5, 2010

Muriel Quinn Craig "Quinnie" \tMuriel Quinn Craig was born in Philadelphia, PA on October 22, 1914. She was the only child of Ethel Rogers Quinn and Richard Lewis Quinn. Quinnie passed away at the Lakes of Litchfield on January 5, 2010.\t \tFollowing graduation from Germantown High School and the Moore College of Art, she had a short career designing women's lingerie. In 1939 she married John Thomas Craig, who predeceased her. They were longtime residents of Philadelphia, PA interrupted only by a move to the naval base in Norfolk, VA during World War II. They returned to Philadelphia until 1976. Quinnie volunteered at Abington Hospital and for many years worked at The June Fete. \tIn 1976 when her husband of 48 years retired, they moved to Pawley's Island, SC to enjoy the good life. They enjoyed playing golf at the Litchfield Country Club and had many friends. \tQuinnie is survived by daughter, Barbara Craig Gribbel and son-in-law John Gribbel 3rd of Palm Beach Gardens, FL, and daughter, Susan Kent Craig of Atlanta, GA, three grandsons and seven great-grandchildren. \tThe family will receive visitors on Thursday, January 7th between 3:00 and 4:00 PM at the Lakes of Litchfield in the Assisted Living private diningroom. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the charity of your choice. Sign a guestbook at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.
