Tribute Wall

“ I would like to offer my condolences for the loss of your loved one. It is very difficult to lose a beloved, so we need the comfort and support of both family and friends as well as God. If you turn your attention to the bible you will see at Romans 15:4, 'that all things were written aforetime and were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort of the scriptures we might have hope.' The bible tells us that one day God will end sickness and death according to Rev. 21:4. Through my study of the bible, I have also come to appreciate the resurrection. Scriptures at John 5:28, 29 and Acts 24:15 tell of a coming resurrection for all those in their memorial tombs, both the righteous and unrighteous. May you be comforted in knowing that God has made this provision available for our lost loved ones. It is my desire that you gain hope from these thoughts and read them from your own copy of the bible.##imported-begin##Freda##imported-end##
