“ Just made Miss Myrtle's sweet potatoe casserole. Thought about her reading her hand written recipe. Will cook it on thanksgiving day. Donna hope you and family will make it through the holidays without to much sadness. Johnny morris

“ I am truly saddened at the loss of my dear friend. When we first met working at J.C. Penney’s we instantly clicked with each other. We developed a bond that over the years she became my hero and my inspiration. She was an extraordinary person whom I admired and loved very much. I cherish the times we had together and how much she touched my life. I am so grateful to have known such a great lady and know how very much I will miss her. Rest In Peace my special friend.

“ Aunt Myrtle was such a blessing to others around her, showing love and kindness with welcoming arms making you feel so loved. She was so close to my mother and did so much to assist her in her final days here on earth and was also with her when she was called home. Hopefully they are rejoicing together now!

She was much stronger than I in dealing with her illness and in her death. I will always remember her love and compassion and also her ability to give to others. She gave of herself unselfishly and I will always remember her and Uncle Carl and their demonstration of love for me and my family. My love goes out to Donna and her family at this sad time. What a blessing to have those wonderful memories.

With much Love, Jack and Carolyn Grimes

“ Dear Donna and Charlie,
I so looked forward to visiting with Ms. Myrtle at our monthly Penney's luncheons. And I especially enjoyed going to lunch at her home- such a warm, inviting place for her friends to gather and eat. I knew that any dish she cooked or baked would be delicious! I have a collection of her recipes, which I treasure.

Your mom has been an inspiration to me. She was so spry and sharp-minded, still living on her own [with your help] as she aged. A tribute to Ms. Myrtle is her wide circle of friends and how much we'll miss her.

I'm very sorry for your loss of this special woman who you were privileged to call "mom." And I know that she adored you and the rest of her family.

God bless you and comfort you,
Linda Tilson
