“ Dear Tony, I was very sad to hear the news about Nan. It seems I just saw the two of you out and about last week. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this most difficult time. Love, Tina

“ I was graciously invited to the Lapari's home by Joe for a lovely Easter dinner last year. I was by myself for Easter and Joe, who I work with, asked if I would like to join his lovely family to share in their festivities. Nan, who I met for the very first time, was a delightful lady. She was a wonderful hostess and treated me very kind. One thing that stands out in my mind about Nan is that she she was a very warm Lady, she kept offering us Easter goodies after dinner, it reminded me of Easter as a child. Also she had made a delicious chocolate pudding pie with whip cream. I think Joe said it was one of her signature dishes. A very kind lady indeed. May her soul be at rest.
