“ To Nancy's family, I send my sincere condolences to each one of you. I check the obituaries from most of the funeral homes in Horry County every morning. I was surprised and saddened when I saw Nancy's. My son, Phil Cooper, was a classmate of Nancy's at Waccamaw Elementary and I remember her well, and also her parents. She has left us way too soon. I am so sorry.

“ I knew and loved Nancy since she was 4 years old. She would definitely keep you laughing and that laugh was contagious! I always enjoyed our time together whether we were going on cruises, eating and spending holidays together with family, etc. Nancy always put her family and others ahead of herself. She had a true forgiving and loving heart. I loved Nancy. She is now healed and resting in the arms of God, reunited with those she loved so much. She is finally able to be with her sweet, baby girl, Nikki, whom she will now be with for eternity. Sending my love to Billy, Spencer, Nick and their families. I will always be here for you.....

Ms. Nancy was the kindest soul and had the most beautiful smile. She was such an encouragement to me and my son (Clay), and we will miss her so much. She was an incredibly special Christian woman and her love for those around her was apparent. I take heart that she's with our precious Savior and Home. Keeping her sweet family in prayer.
