“ Bayliss, Marty & Charlene, I am so sorry to hear about Nancy. She gave me some great memories taking me on boat rides down the Waccamaw. She called it our girls day out whenever we could slip away. We would laugh so hard at some of the stories we shared our stomachs hurt. Once back on land, we once again became Moms, wives and friends with so many secrets that only we would find funny. My prayers are with you all and know she will be missed. May God Bless.

“ Nancy was always taking care of others. A life lived in service to God is truly rare these days. May the peace of God's love, grace, and mercy give the family comfort until we all meet again on that beautiful shore. Jimm T
