

Nancy Poggioli-Fry

April 25, 1951 - December 2, 2025

Nancy Poggioli-Fry, a woman of warmth and quiet spirit, passed away on Tuesday, December 2, 2025, at the age of 74 at Grand Strand Medical Center. Born on April 25, 1951, in Baltimore, Maryland, Nancy was the cherished daughter of the late Joseph and Myra Poggioli. Her life was a testament to the simple, enduring pleasures of the world: the solace of nature, the rhythmic peace of the beach, and a deep, abiding compassion for animals. She nurtured a vibrant inner life as an avid reader and a lifelong seeker of knowledge. Her easygoing disposition and laid-back nature found a perfect harmony in the music of Jimmy Buffett, whose spirit she embraced as a dedicated "Parrothead."

Nancy's memory is carried on by her daughter, Karen Marciano (Mari), of Columbia, and her three beloved grandchildren: Nicholas Ferraro of Greenville, Carmella Ferraro of Annapolis, Maryland, and Jason Ferraro of Clemson. She also leaves behind her sister, Virginia Chism, of Naples, Florida, her constant companion, her cherished cat, "Moo" and her close friends and chosen family Curt & Donna, Roxie and Marty.

Funeral services will be private. In place of flowers, the family kindly requests that memorial contributions be made to an animal rescue organization of one's choice, a gesture that perfectly reflects Nancy's lifelong empathy.

Tribute Wall

SV

“ Nancy always said she, Roxie and me were “old souls” because of how our birthdays were in April. She certainly lived life on her terms. I enjoyed hanging out in her garage just talking. She had had an interesting life. She will certainly be missed. Nancy, Roxie and I will carry on the birthday tradition to honor you. Rest in peace, dear friend.

Sharon Verdu - December 13, 2025 at 09:57 PM

RW

“ Renee Wikstrom lit a candle in memory of Nancy Poggioli-Fry

Renee Wikstrom - December 08, 2025 at 04:51 PM

CB

“ Nancy was a wonderful person. She had our hearts. She will be missed so much in this neighborhood. We are sorry for your loss. Curt and Donna

curt Baker - December 07, 2025 at 10:06 PM