

Nancy Scholl

July 15, 1943 - May 2, 2023

Nancy Austin Scholl, 79, of Conway, SC peacefully passed away on Tuesday, May 2, 2023.

Born in Oswego, NY to Edward and Hazel Austin, Nancy was a dedicated educator, wife, mother, and grandmother. She was a strong advocate for both her students and her family.

Nancy taught early childhood education in New York and joined the faculty of Conway High School as a math teacher when her family relocated to the area.

She loved animals from an early age, with a particular fondness for horses and dogs. When she was younger, one of her greatest joys was to care for horses at the local stable. She rescued numerous dogs and developed a strong bond with each of her pets.

Her husband of nearly 55 years, Thomas, was also an educator. The two enjoyed dining, walking, and traveling to the mountains with their children and grandchildren each fall.

Nancy had a sharp intellect and thought deeply about current events, politics, philosophy, and spirituality. She loved debating and discussing issues of substance.

Her influence continues to resonate through her children, grandchildren, friends and extended family whom she loved selflessly and unconditionally. She had the biggest heart and let her loved ones know that through her acts of service and the way she could always be relied upon.

Nancy was predeceased by her husband, Thomas Scholl., and leaves behind her daughter, Sabrina Scholl, son, Todd Scholl, son-in-law, Kevin Pierce, and stepdaughters, Kristi Heap and Kyra Scholl.

She also leaves behind her grandchildren, Madison Scholl, Colin Scholl, Sophie Scholl, Hunter Scholl, Tanner Scholl, Tom Carbone, Brandon Volpe, Justin Volpe, Noah Byrne, and Schuyler Byrne.

She also leaves behind her great-granddaughter, Kensington Byrne and great-grandson, Brody Scholl.
