“ Mom, it's been three weeks now and I miss you more than you will ever know. You were the best Mom a girl could ask for. I know we had our moments, our disagreements and even didn't want to be around each other at times, but through it all I loved you so much. You taught me so well and I only hope that I made you proud of what I have become. You will always be in my mind and most importantly in my heart. I love you and miss you even more.

“ Omiyum, as my kids affectionately called her, was a wonderful lady. She was like another parent to Gary and me and a grandmother to my kids. Naomi and I met 25+ years ago in the bathroom of our office building. What an unusual place to start a fantastic friendship. Although we haven't seen her in a few years due to distance, she has always been in our hearts. When I told my son about her passing, his first words were " we have to have tacos and ice cream w/ omi's homemade chocolate sauce for dinner tonight in memory of her", and we did. We loved her and will miss her. Bunbun, we love you too!

“ Naomi was a beautiful woman of faith who enriched the lives of all those who came in contact with her. Her radiant smile in this photo tells the story better than words; It was a special blessing to be in her presence. She was a most compassionate, loving person and one of the greatest cooks! We will always remember her turtle brownies which she shared often with our Care and Share Sunday School class. We look forward to our reunion in Heaven!

“ Naomi was one of the kindest souls I've ever known. Her tireless attention and dedication to her great granddaughter, Kacie, (as well as Kacie's friends and classmates!) were an example of pure love. My daughter was lucky to have been touched by this wonderful woman! Naomi helped to introduce my daughter to Timberlake Baptist Church, where she has enjoyed the youth group and sang in the Christmas play. Some of my favorite memories of Naomi....."Trunk-or-Treat" at Timberlake, volunteering and carpooling "the girls", and especially her AMAZING homemade chocolate fudge sauce at the holidays!! I will always remember her strength and beauty, I'm blessed to have been her neighbor. Lori Iannone
