“ December 17, my sweet Aunt Naomi went home to be with the Lord. While my heart aches, I find peace in knowing she can finally walk again. I'll always treasure the memories we made—our trips to the mountains, dinners out, and her simple yet unforgettable cooking. I'll never eat a bowl of rice, dried lima beans, and tomatoes without thinking of her.

I'm so grateful for the many times God touched her body when we thought we might lose her. We spent countless hours in hospitals, witnessing the Lord work miracles and give us more time with her. She was a fighter, a testimony of faith, and a blessing to all who knew her.

Rest easy, Aunt Naomi. You'll always be in my heart.
