“ Carol, Billy and I Were are sorry to hear of your moms passing. I know you recently spent several weeks with her and I am sure that is a blessing you will cherish. Its been many years since I saw Ms Nell but she was a very sweet southern charm lady. You and your family will be in our prayers.

I am saddened to hear of Miss Nell's passing. She and Alice Floyd taught me to catch crabs with old, dead fish heads, string and a hook. She shared many of her prize recipes with us; graced us with her prized pound cakes; and we shared many a laugh and good times together. We loved her as our own kin. I am at least happy to have gotten to visit with her a couple of weeks ago. It makes letting her go a little easier as I think she was ready.

Much love to all of the family members. I am sorry I can't be there but will honor and remember her for the rest of my life.
