“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ I was saddened to hear of Nick's passing. My sympathies are with the Cagnino family. Nick was a great man. He was my first boss out of college, and he took me under his wing. He even taught me how to play craps at the casino when he wasn't mentoring me at the workplace, he knew how to work hard and keep it fun at the same time. He was not only my boss, but my friend. You'll be missed Nick. From: Brian Eidenshink and the Eidenshink Family

“ To the Cagnino Family:

At the end of each life is a legacy of love and memories. Hold tight to those memories...Lean on each other for support...And look to God's Word, the Bible, for comfort and strength. 1Peter 5:7 encourages; “..throw all your anxiety upon Him, because He cares for you.”

*My condolences,
