*Karyn and Nicole,
I know it is hard to lose a father... a daddy. I can imagine the pain you are experiencing. Though difficult for you to think of now, it does get a bit better over time. Appreciate all the love you have shared and look forward to the day you will see your daddy again. God Bless.*

“ Karyn, Nichole, Ernie, and family - I see "Share A Memory" on this Tribute Wall, and I think, "How can I pick?" I had so many wonderful memories of Johnny (and Barbara.) He was the very first person I met when I moved to Myrtle Beach, the first person to ask me "Clemson or Gamecocks?" (and he still liked me for answering "Gamecocks.") I spent hours and hours with him on Kay and Coley's pontoon boat, or sitting at Warren's, or in my sister's kitchen. He was my friend. No matter what happened, Johnny was my friend. I'll toast a good man today, a great Dad, a loving husband, and the guy who tagged me "Sister Sarah." Rest In Peace Johnny Seesan!! You've got a Yankee shedding a tear for you today.

“ Nicole and Karyn,
So very sorry for your loss. Your daddy was always such a joy to be around when we were growing up. I loved his crazy sense of humor- and he still had it every time I saw him. Every time I buy a Barbie for my girls, I think of Mr Johnny and how he REALLY didn't like for us to leave Barbie in the "Dream house pool". 😊 Wonderful memories I will always cherish! Much love to both of you!!
