“ Miss Me But Let Me Go
When I come to the end of the road

And the sun has set for me

I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little but not too long

And not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared,

Miss me but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take

And each must go alone.

It's all a part of the Master's plan,

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart

Go to the friends we know

And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss Me But Let me Go!

Michelle you, the boys and Nick's family are in our prayers. It is just hard to believe this has happened. Just last Wednesday he came by the house and talked with Jan and I for almost an hour. We will be thinking of yall during this difficult time. My heart hurts knowing he was in such pain and so depressed. He will be remembered through the eyes of your boys. Janson & Tara Barnhill

“ My brother I never had. My heart is breaking. No matter the situation you have always been there to help when I needed you. You invested time and love into my children. No matter my life decisions you always supported me and kept in contact. We have many memories I will always hold close to my heart. You are missed dearly. This is not good bye, it's until I see you again. You touched many lives that will no longer be the same again. No more pain buddy. No more worries. I love and miss you
