“ Nina was one of the best servers the PIT ever had, and we all loved her and called her "Boots." She was exceptionally intelligent and quick-witted, and was a great part of our Pawleys Island social circle. She loved to discuss good books and ideas, and was well-respected by her colleagues for her professionalism and respect for her co-workers. She occasionally hosted a great party, and was always full of smiles and wry witticisms. She was an important part of a certain era on Pawleys Island . . .

“ I am a nurse and only met Nina a couple weeks before her passing. Nina told me she was from Manhattan, NY and currently lived in Litchfield Beach, SC. The little time I spent with Nina she was so compassionate, I felt like she was the nurse. Nina stayed in my thoughts b/c she was not feeling well. I am also from Canaan, NY and live in Litchfield Beach, SC and am near her same age. Just today I read in the Coastal Observer of Nina's passing. I was touched by Nina's life story. Rest in peace, Nina
