“ Tyler, Danielle, Gage, Gracen,

There are no words that can tell you how sorry I am on the loss of your mother, mother-in-law, and grandmother, but I do know that God allowed you the opportunity to create wonderful memories with her through the years that he allowed her to be a part of your lives. She fought the good fight and stayed strong through all the valleys that she has gone through in the past few years, months, weeks, days, and hours and we all know that God was with her through it all and finally that last valley led her to the beautiful mountaintop that God had promised her he would one day allow her to see and today she is resting in the arms of her loving Savior and singing with the angels in Heaven and being reunited with all of her loved ones and friends that had gone on ahead of her. They say that time heals all wounds even broken hearts but time cannot erase the memories of the loved ones we all have lost to death, but we must always remember that this life is just a dressing room preparing all of us for the final curtain finale.....and so Ms Nadine's curtain has now been closed but what a standing ovation in Heaven awaited her when she crossed over Jordan and most of all her seeing the open loving arms of Jesus welcoming her home!! May God give you all the peace and comfort that only He can give for today, tomorrow and through the weeks, months and years is my earnest prayer. I love you all.

“ Tyler & family, Glenda & family,

May the love and loving memories of your Mom and sister get you through this sad time. She is now with our Lord and her husband. My husband and I met Nadine through the Order of Eastern Star, and there we found out we were neighbors. She was a very sweet lady. She will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing her.
