“ Norman was a nice brother in law. He was polite and kind to me. When visiting my home he loved sharing memories of family and friends. He was very proud of his children and grandchildren and their great accomplishments. He loved a home cooked meal as well as going out to socialize at favorite restaurants. He loved crab cakes. I loved that he would drop everything and come if I needed help or him to lend a hand. I am very thankful for the happiness he brought to my sister. I will miss Norman. My prayers and deepest sympathy to the Allen family.

“ Norman died so soon after our marriage I still am in shock. It's gonna be hard and lonely without him. I was with him when he passed. That I'm glad of. I have good memories to keep. Which keeps me going. I will never be the same without him but, God's got me in His hands! How do you say goodbye to your mate, I don't know. I guess it's not goodbye but, I'll see him one day....and what a glorious reunion it will be. I love you Mr.Allen!
