

Norman Clyde Derby

October 14, 2004

Norman Clyde Derby, age 52, of Waccamaw Circle, died Thursday, October 14, 2004 at his residence following an illness. Mr. Derby was born in Grasmere, NH, a son of Cedric Derby and the late Joan Coombs Derby. He was a member of the F.I.B.C.A and was employed with Premier Tech Chronos as an equipment engineer and in sales. Mr. Derby's favorite saying was "you work to live, not live to work" and he was living this on the Waccamaw River. Surviving in addition to his father of Greenville, TX are his wife, Cindy Derby of Conway; two sons, Terry Gerard and his wife Holly of Durant, OK and Marquis Gerard and his wife Jessica of North Myrtle Beach; one daughter Christi Roberts of Texas; two brothers, Bill Derby and his wife Linda of Mandaville, LA and Steve Derby and his wife Terry of Arlington, TX; one sister Elaine Derby of Sherman, TX; three grandchildren, Brandi McDaniel, Destiny Roberts and Andrew Gerard; two nephews Greg Schmuck and Tommy Schmuck A graveside service will be held 2:00 PM Sunday from North Myrtle Beach Memorial Gardens. Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel is in charge.

Tribute Wall

“ Norm did live life to it's fullest. I can still hear him laughing, as we shared jokes and war stories while drivng through the flatlands of Iowa. He was respected by all who met him and will sure be missed.##imported-begin##Larry Makros##imported-end##

October 18, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ NULL##imported-begin##Marilyn Walters##imported-end##

October 17, 2004 at 12:00 AM