“ It has been a month already Pap. It feels like a dream to me, I really want to wake up and you at my house picking up something or doing something for mama or us going somewhere to get in trouble. You know we could do that real good. LOL I miss you and mama is like a lost little puppy in the woods without you. She walks round and round and never gets anything done. Aidan will see your truck and he wants to go riding. Aviary said just yesterday: "Naa Naa, I miss Mr. Pap, I wish me and him could play together". Ohhhhh the dog!!!!!! Mama has him at her house, she has not done anything with him. She talks to that dog like he is a human. Gets on my nerves, but I put up with it because I know how much you and her loved him. Peace out buddy, I know you would not come back for all the money in the world. Please tell daddy I love him and I will see you both real soon. Love you. I'm going to light a candle for you, can you believe they do not have a orange one for Clemson. HaHa..... I will have to light the periwinkle one, its as close to purple as I can get. "Go Tigers"
