“ Dear Ed and Lynn I have to say that I'm really going to Miss Nyomi she was my best friend. Her love for me and my Family will always be treasured. The Love that I have for her will carry me through the years. So many people who I loved left me by walking away. Nyomi never walked away from me she just flew away with her wings. “ Our thoughts and prayers are with Ny's family at this time. We have many fond memories of our social gatherings with Ny and Mike and all our friends from the old Action House crew in Island Park, NY. It's a shame that we all don't have time to spend always laughing and re mincing but our memories will keep Ny in our thoughts forever.##imported-begin##Michael and Lynna Honahan##imported-end##

“ I'm sorry to say I just knew Nyomi for a very short time. But she was feisty, loved playing cards and was very appreciative that her brother and sister-in-law took such good care of her in her final days. She's in a better place, painfree, and teaching "May I" classes on high. God bless her and her family in their sorrow. Meg##imported-begin##Meg John##imported-end##

“ Aunt Nyomi, Frank Sinatra must've had you in mind when he sang "My Way". What an independent lady who loved her family and loved her friends. You were so great to my brother and I growing up. I know you are with uncle mike and your mom and your sister. Watch over all of us. Big Thomas and Baby Thomas are going to miss you. “ Dear "Just Ed" and Family, I am so saddened to hear of Nyomi's passing. For the last 2 1/2 years Nyomi taught me so much about the antique business and about life. She welcomed me into Barntique Village with a smile and made me feel welcome from the beginning. She never pulled her punches and I respect her for that!! will cherish my memories of her and keep her in my prayers always. Yours, Michele Auntie Q##imported-begin##Michele Marcus-Krohn##imported-end##
