DH

I always remember Aunt Martha as a kind and gentle woman. My dad was her big brother and they shared a special bond. I always wanted to be a part of her life but the hate my mother felt for my dad's family prevented that. Obey or suffer the consequences. Aunt Martha tried in subtle ways to reach out to me but the fear of being discovered by my mom as overwhelming. She will be 94 and still holds her children hostage. I am ashamed with all my heart that I missed out on knowing such a fine, wonderful woman as my Aunt Martha.It's to late now, but I just wanted Cindy to know how sorry we all are.
