

Oliver James Hart, Jr.

April 3, 2009

Pawleys Island Oliver James Hart, Jr., 57, husband of Nancy Reese Hart, of Pawleys Island, South Carolina died suddenly April 3rd 2009. He was born in Columbia SC May 13, 1951 to the late Oliver James Hart and Edith Jane Going. Having attended public schools in Columbia, SC he was in the class of 1969 at Dreher High and attended the University of South Carolina where he was a member of the sigma alpha epsilon fraternity. Jim's love of sports, games, and hanging out with his many and diverse friends led him to amass, one of the country's largest collections of vintage beer and sports neon signage. In the truest sense, Jim never met a stranger. His rare wit and humor was a magnet for the many friends who will now truly miss this man of great generosity and endearing nature. He is survived by his wife of 35 years, daughters Claire Hyson Hart and Meredith Grace Hart both of Charleston, brother Ree Bettie Hart, aunt Georgia Herbert Hart, cousins Dr. O Frank Hart, George Childs Hart, Dr. Henry Asbill, Becky Hart Smith, and Nancy Asbill Falls, nephews Bo Hart, Cam Hart, Robert Bryan, Joseph Bryan and niece Elizabeth Bryan. A celebration of his life will be held at 5:00 P.M. Sunday, April 19, 2009 at Litchfield by the Sea Community Beach House. In the spirit of the life of Jim Hart, the family asks that in lieu of flowers that donations and acts of goodwill be made to less fortunate citizens in ones community.

“ Nancy, Words cannot express the sadness I feel over the loss of Jim. I felt the same way when Frank died so suddenly in 1998. I had not seen Jim in years but would know him by that fabulous smile in the picture. Since Mama died in 2006 I have not kept up, only seeing Ree and Bettie on infrequent trips to Columbia. Our families were so close with Jane, my godmother, and Mama, Ree's godmother. We went on vacations together. Frank and Jim were great friends and of course we all went to Mrs. McCreight's together. I had hoped to make it to Litchfield for the celebration but couldn't. Maybe I can visit you this summer when I am down at Litchfield. Our sympathies to all of you. God Bless.##imported-begin##Becky Turner Riggs##imported-end##

“ Dear Nancy, I was so sorry to learn of Jim's passing. I think back to the day's at Morningside when you and I would see each other as we visited our moms. You were so good to mother - you were like a second daughter to her. I adored your mom and I learned that she had passed a little earlier. I met Jim at her 85th birthday and knew immediately that he loved life and he enjoyed every minute of it. Know that you and your girls are in my thoughts and prayers. If you are ever in Columbia, let me know. With sympathy and love, Pam Knudsen##imported-begin##Pam Knudsen##imported-end##

“ Nancy, It was much sadness that I read Jim's obituary in the paper on Sunday. I have many fond memories of "OJ" or "Oliver J" in the days when we worked at VC Summer Station. I have thought about you all several times and wondered where you were and how you were doing. My deepest sympathies to you and your family. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers in the coming days. Shelton Lattimore###imported-begin###Shelton Lattimore###imported-end##

“ Jim and I grew up together. My mother always told me that she and Jane Hart were practically roommates in the hospital when Jim and I were born. He was 3 days younger. We attended both school and Church together while growing up in Columbia. I have vivid memories of trips to play basketball in the Episcopal tournament and specifically of one occasion when the game was stopped while Jim lay on the floor with his kneecap dislocated. Jim Hart was always a thoughtful and kind person who never met a stranger. I am sad that I had not seen more of Jim as we grew older and send my thoughts and prayers to Nancy, Ree and the girls.###imported-begin##Alvin Strasburger Jr###imported-end##
