Myrtle Beach Omer Waverly Capps, age 66 of Freewood Rd., died Monday, January 29, 2007 while helping a stranded motorist. Born July 31, 1940 in Murrells Inlet, he was the son of Beatrice Wells of Conway and the late Ernest Waverly Capps. Mr. Capps was a US Air Force veteran and a retired truck driver. “ Dear family, Ours hearts have such an empty place at this time. But I can only pray that with time this place will be full of the best and happiest times we spent with Waverly. He was one heck on a person that will always be remembered with love, joy and smiles. May your time of sadness be filled with smiles and knowing that he is walking with the angles watching over us all left behind. “ Dear Doris and family, We are Michael Jones grandparents, I met Mr. Capps about 2 yrs. ago when he brought Michael to meet us at Markett Express because Michael was going to spend the weekend with us. My husband and I thought what a kind man, he didn't even know us, but he did this kind deed because I didn't know how to get to Sabrina and Timmy's home. I have heard nothing but many kind things about Mr. Capps and part of them came from my grandson, Michael. I am so glad even though we didn't really know this kind man, I did get to tell him over the phone last year how much we appreciate him and all the Capps family for such kindness, however, we did not think any of this wonderful family would be any different, after all, we know Mr. Capps son, Timmy. We are so sorry for your loss of your best friend, husband, father and grandfather. You are in our prayers. Doris just remember dearheart, when you feel loney and miss him, remember all the best of times and you will have a smile in your heart. You and your family are in our prayers and thoughts at this sad time in your life. With Love and friend Mike and Janie Jones###imported-begin###Mike and Janie Jones###imported-end##

“ To Doris, Ken, Cindy, Bradley, Timothy, all the grandchildren, great-grandchildren, Bea, and Janie: All of the Family of Waverly's Uncle James Capps were very sorry to hear of Waverly's passing. We will always treasure the memories we have of him being so full of life and his gift for sharing his love for life with others he came in contact with. There were no strangers to him. He was a special nephew and cousin. It was always such a privilege to spend time with him and enjoy his great sense of humor and heartfelt warm kindness. If it is some small comfort, know that he is having a wonderful reunion with all his grandparents, his Dad, Odell, Sandra, and Tommy, and of course all the uncles, aunts, and cousins who have gone on before. He is finally meeting his Uncle Robert, who the Capps children never had the privilege to know. What a time they must be having. Our hearts go out to you and share in your sorrow. May God Bless each of you and Comfort you all, as only He can. With Love, Uncle James and Aunt Hazel; Jimmy and family; Bobby and family; Billy and family; and Greg and family##imported-begin##James Capps##imported-end##
