“ Dear Robbie, Rhonda, Nancy, Max and family: I just read about Orpha and want to send my deepest sympathies. I will always remember the weekend we spent on Ebeemee Pond when Orpha came roaring out to get us from the mainland in her little outboard. I remember blueberry pancakes on the wood stove, moose in the bog, the immaculate outhouse, and the first time I ever heard loons. It was a magical time made more special by the spunk and hospitality of Orpha. I am so sorry for your loss. Hugs, Susan Hurley
