“ I am very saddened to hear of the loss of Mr. Hucks. Losing a loved one is very difficult. I have found that at times like these, the importance of relying on Almighty God. It is calming to know that God does care for us. We find confidence from knowing that He is always available for us to throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us - Ps. 55:22. Psalms 145:19 lets us know that God hears ours cries for help and will save all those fearing in Him. It was never God's intention for man to die , which is why according to Acts 24:15 we are told to have hope in the resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous. May you find comfort in these thoughts and await the prospect of reuniting with your loved one again!##imported-begin##F. Allston##imported-end##
