

Ottis Wayne Williams

August 22, 1945 - May 9, 2009

LORIS...Ottis Wayne Williams, age 63, passed away Saturday, May 9, 2009 at Loris Community Hospital following an illness.

Mr. Williams was born August 22, 1945 in Mullins a son of the late Herbert Ottis Williams and the late Estalene Alford Williams. He retired from Pepsi Cola after working 19 ½ years as a route salesman and truck driver. He was founder and co-owner of Williams Ditching and Clearing. Mr. Williams spent most of his life as an active member of Pleasant Meadow Baptist Church and was currently a member and trustee of Lake Swamp Baptist Church. He was a kind hearted man, a loving father, and a devoted grandfather. Mr. Williams was a wonderful neighbor and was always willing to help people. He enjoyed fishing, Bluegrass music, and playing the bass guitar.

Survivors include one son: Kevin W. Williams and his wife Cynthia of Conway; one daughter: Hope Lyerly of Johnsonville; one brother: Tommy Lynn Williams and his wife Beverly of Kinston, NC; and three grandchildren: Daniel Wayne Williams and Aaron James Williams both of Conway, and Brandon Lyerly of Johnsonville.

The family will receive friends Monday, May 11, 2009 from 6-8 PM at Ward Funeral Home in Loris.

Funeral services will be held 2:00 PM Tuesday, May 12, 2009 from the Pleasant Meadow Baptist Church with the Rev. Randy Ghent and the Rev. Rocky Gregory officiating. Burial will follow in the church cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, 120

Wall Street, 19th Floor, New York, NY 10005.

“ We search a lifetime to find a true friend. A person that you can talk about anything with and get their honest opinion. Mr. Wayne and I held many conversations while sitting and watching the river flow by. Those days I will cherish forever.##imported-begin##Kenneth Herndon##imported-end##
