“ Dear Phebe, Peggy, Pauline, Mike, Jason, Alyssa and Richelle, I just read about Patty.....I am so sorry for your loss. She was one of my closest friends during our senior year in high school. We walked together at graduation! What great fun we use to have buzzing around in Patty's VW! She was always so happy and fun to be with! I'll keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Debbie Feaster Rafferty##imported-end##

“ I haven't seen Patty in quite a few years, but my heart just skipped a beat when I read this news. I have such fond memories of her attending a birthday party at my house in elementary school and whenever I think of her it brings a smile to my face. Patty always smiled and I always enjoyed laughing with her through Highschool. I wasn't able to attend our last class reunion due to military obligations, and I am sorry I did not get to see her then. I am so sorry for your loss but what a gem heaven has gained! My thoughts and prayers to all her family and friends. Rest assured she is at peace and continues to smile upon us all.##imported-begin##Diana Pitman##imported-end##

“ Patti was one of my best friends growing up....the fun times we could tell you about!!! I can see her smiling and laughing. Years past after high school & we reunited about five years ago and what a Blessing. Never have I witnessed anyone with such courage and faith as Patty. Patty's zest, energy and enthusiasm of life was contageous as was her smile and laughter. I know we will meet again, my friend. To Patty's family, my thoughts and prayers are with you. Remember the love and that she will be with you always. God Bless you all. janet##imported-begin##Janet McMahon##imported-end##

“ Dear Mike and Family, I am so sorry to hear of the death of Patty. I was reading in my journal today, January 24, 2008 and had an entry from January 24, 2006 that I was praying for Patty. I had lost contact with her over the last couple of years, but we had conversations and prayer together in years past, after I met her at Carolina Forest Community Church. I pray blessings on you and your family as you grieve the lost of your wife and mother to your children. Sincerely, Joyce Partenheimer##imported-begin##Joyce Partenheimer##imported-end##

“ Mike and family, My thoughts are with you and your family. I will continue to pray that you have the strength to keep it going as she would have wanted you all to do. Patty was a very strong yet gentle woman. I had the pleasure of meeting her one day when I was invited to a bike run for her surgery. We had something in common...my teenager had cancer and so did she. Patty and I had a bond to be able to talk candid about life and God. She is resting comfortably and sitting at the right hand of the man that will give you all the power you need to make it. Godspeed Patty. We all have many memories that no one can take away from us. deb bailey##imported-begin##Deb Bailey##imported-end##

“ I grew up on the same street as Patty and went to High School with her. When I saw her last at our class reunion, she demonstrated the same elegant sophistication and charming sense of humor that I had always admired in her. Her beauty was as striking as that gorgeous red mane. I copied a poem that had helped me through a difficult time. I hope you read this and find a little comfort. Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep. I am in a thousand winds that blow, I am the softly falling snow. I am the gentle showers of rain, I am the fields of ripening grain. I am in the morning hush, I am in the graceful rush Of beautiful birds in circling flight, I am the star shine of the night. I am in the flowers that bloom, I am in a quiet room. I am in the birds that sing, I am in each lovely thing. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there. I did not die. written by Mary Elizabeth Frye

“ I met Patty through girls lunch day we use to have once a week. We instantly hit it off. She was so open and warm. We had the type of friendship that even if we hadn't seen each other in months we would find a corner and could talk forever. My life was touched by her! She will be dearly missed. Love and prayers to Mike and the kids.##imported-begin##Bobbi Passarello##imported-end##
