“ Chris, You will not much recall us, your neighbors of E36th, in Brooklyn, #1527-- just across the street. You were very young when you moved. We also eventually moved on. But, I knew your family well; and your mom was a great help to me as a friend, as we were single parents, and also looking after my youngest two, Beth and Donna on many occasions while I worked. (My oldest are--Tom and Kris.) Just recently learned of the loss of your mom; we all are saddened and convey our deepest sympathy. And I shall never forget Patricia's kindness.... Anthony F. “ I want to send my prayers and sympathy to Patty's family, especially her son. We grew up together in a great Brooklyn neighborhood. We played together, went to school together, and when we grew up Patty moved to S.I. right around the corner from me for a short time. Your life was cut short but I know you left love behind in your son and your brother and sisters.##imported-begin##Janet Voulo Rainer##imported-end##

“ My deepest and heartfelt condolences go out to the family. I have had the privilege of knowing Pat for the past 10 years through working together at Blue Cross Blue Shield. We saw each other almost every day of those ten years and she always met me with a smile and genuine kindness. Being here to witness the impact of her passing on my group is the strongest indicator of her character and morale fiber. Her presence, personality, and positivity will be greatly missed.##imported-begin##Michael Nichols##imported-end##

“ My sincerest condolences to the family. Pat was not only a coworker, but someone I had the pleasure of spending some time with as she determined she was going to start riding a bicycle and learn to do it right! When others may have given up or asked to rest, Pat continued to do her very best to keep up with the group. I remember her smile and her laughter. I am so sorry for your loss.###imported-begin###Vickie Fredericks###imported-end##
