Survivors include her sons, Bernard Keith Chestnut and his wife Kandis and Steven Kent Chestnut, all of Conway; her brother, Isaac Jenerette and his wife Sylvia of Conway; her brother-in-law, Thomas Torres of Jacksonville, FL; her loving nieces, Rebecca Hawk and her husband Judd, Regina Torres, and Lisa Jenerette; her great-nephew, Colton Churchwell; and many other extended family and friends.

“ Sweet Mrs. Pat did indeed touch the lives of many children at Hickory Grove. She taught my husband, and then my three children! My oldest son is 19 now and was heartbroken to learn his daycare teacher had passed. What an impact she had on our family. We are forever grateful.
