“ I have known Pat since I was very young. Susan and I grew up together. Pat was like family to me. Pat and my Grandma were BFF's. Susan and I would go on vacations with them we always had some wonderful times and memories . Pat was a beautiful lady and wonderful mother, grandmother and friend. I will always remember her. Rest In Peace Pat.

“ This wonderful lady was a part of my life for years she was my mother in law and shared a very special place in my heart. Over the years we spent many holidays and special events together she always enjoyed her family and friends. She was a kid at heart always ready for an adventure. So happy that we got to spend time together and laugh about our crazy adventures. I love you !
