

Patricia Lynn Graham

November 18, 1958 - August 15, 2023

Patricia Moore Graham (64) of Conway, SC, devoted wife of Joseph K. "Joe" Graham, passed peacefully surrounded by her family on Tuesday, August 15, 2023, after a valiant battle with cancer.

Mrs. Graham was born in Conway, the daughter of the late Jack A. and Paula Woodward Moore. Her presence in the community was broad and far-reaching and it was characterized by her unmistakable wit, warmth, faith and care. To know her was to love her. As a young woman, she graduated from Conway High School in 1977. She attended Coastal Carolina University for two years until she married her husband, Joe, whom she shared 44 incredible years of marriage with. She served as an employee at C&S Bank in Conway until she took on the full-time role of loving mother and wife. She was a proud member of Pine Grove Baptist Church where she previously served as a Sunday School teacher for many years. Mrs. Graham was predeceased by a brother, James Francis Lee, a nephew, James Michael Lee, her father-in-law, William J. "Billy Joe" Graham and mother-in-law, Juanita Johnson Graham; her aunt, Peggy G. "Peppi" Holmes, and an extra special fur baby, Buddy.

Those bearing her legacy in addition to her beloved husband of Conway are her: two beautiful daughters, Jenni Graham and Emily Peavy (Christopher), both of Conway; one precious son, Eric Graham of Conway; three grandchildren whom she adored, Madelyn, Brooklyn, and Jackson Peavy

(expected November 2023); three sisters, Linda Lee of Conway, Jacqueline Moore Gleghorn of Wills Point, Texas, and Nettie Lou Grimmer of Richardson, Texas; one brother, Jack A. Moore, Jr. (Leevon) of Prosper, Texas; two brother-in-laws, Russell Graham (Sandy) and Mike Graham (Crystal), all of Conway; a sister-in-law, Leanne Lundy Lee of Conway; special cousins, Betty and Ed Woodward of Conway; two uncles, Sam Johnson and Freddie Graham both of Aynor; two aunts, Linda Graham of Conway and Becky Graham of Mullins; a special lifelong friend, Renee Calhoun Altman (Barry) of Conway; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins whom she loved dearly.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 PM Friday at Pine Grove Baptist Church with Rev. John Holmes officiating. Burial will follow in Graham Cemetery.

The family will receive friends at Goldfinch Funeral Home from 4:00 PM until 7:00 PM Thursday.

Memorials may be sent to Pine Grove Baptist Church Building Fund, (Mailing Address Only: 5008 Old Reaves Ferry Rd, Conway, SC 29526).

The family would like to extend a heartfelt "Thank You" to Angelic Hospice for their care. The family would also like to thank the incredible teams at MUSC: Dr. Zeke Walton and his assistant Crystal Prothro, Dr. Ian Bostock and the staff of the Hollings Cancer Center for the compassionate care they gave Mrs. Graham during her journey. There is no doubt that God placed these professionals in Mrs. Graham's path and that He walked alongside her every step of the way.

Mrs. Graham's family and dear friends find comfort in knowing she is fully healed and in the presence of her savior. But they will miss her every minute until they get to see her again.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Patricia's passing and very sorry she was sick. Patricia was always so special to my family. We loved her so much. My Paw-Paw love her and thought she was a beautiful girl so he called her Sugar-Foot. My entire family called her Sugar-Foot from then on. We loved her and are going to miss her so much. Prayers to her husband, family and friends. We truly lost a good one.

“ Patricia was an angel on earth - she shared her life by altruistic, God driven examples, love and laughter. She taught me to be a “hugger” and to embrace those in the many journeys of life. Joe is also an example of a wonderful husband and advocate - he was always there supporting her. I was apart of her journey, and she is apart of my mine. What a wonder she shared with us all, and I am very thankful God put her in so many paths. God bless her, Joe, the family and Renee who was such a great friend too. She is missed by many. My sincere condolences, Mary Katherine

“ Joe and family, I am so at a loss for words for your loss of dear sweet Patricia. She was the epitome of a Christian. She lived her life for all to see Jesus in her. To know her was to love her. And I am so blessed to have known her. She did not meet a stranger. She loved no matter what and you all are so blessed to have had her. She was and is still so special and heaven is so much sweeter with her there. There is no doubt that that is where she is. Standing before Jesus and singing his praises. But now please know that you all are in my prayers. God will give you courage and comfort for the coming days and it is my prayer that you find solace in knowing she is healed and no longer suffering and one day soon we all will see her again. What a reunion day that will be. All my love and prayers to you all. Annette Collins Bratcher

“ I will miss Patricia and her sweet spirit immensely, yet I am celebrating her new home...in heaven in the presence of Jesus! Her legacy continues here on earth though. Patricia gave me a bag of small silver crosses about 2 years ago and challenged me to give those out to strangers...and share the love of Jesus. What a joy it has been to give out those crosses. We quickly gave all of those crosses away, so I asked a company to make a tool to produce those crosses for me and we have since ordered thousands of crosses and are giving those away. Ever time I give away a cross, I share the story of my dear friend Patricia. She inspired me to give out crosses and share the love of Jesus with others...and now many others are giving out crosses as well. I believe there will be many people in heaven one day because they received the ultimate free gift of grace and salvation by the saving work of Jesus Christ on that rugged cross....and were encouraged by a simple gift of a small silver cross...inspired by Patricia Graham! We love you all. Bob Williamsen

There are not enough words to describe this sweet lady. I didn't see her often but when I did, we had such a wonderful time. I loved her sister Nettie Lou and her brother Jack, Jr. haven't either of them in years . She had a nice husband and children. Emily in particular was special to me...we just clicked the first time we met. May God add a special mantel of comfort to this family as they move forward without their matriarch.
