

Patricia "Trish" Helms

December 22, 1955 - January 4, 2017

Murrells Inlet.....Patricia "Trish" Helms

Patricia "Trish" Helms age 61, died Wednesday, January 4, 2017 at Grand Strand Regional Medical Center.

Born in Charlotte, NC, she was a daughter of the late Charlie and Nina Belle Wooten. Trish was a native of Mt. Holly, NC. She was a successful business lady that started several companies in the Gaston County and Charlotte area. Among her many passions were beauty pageants with her daughter and granddaughters. Trish founded the Little Miss North Carolina pageant in Lincolnton, NC. She also enjoyed antiques, arts, crafts and baking but of all her hobbies her favorite was collecting and showing off her jewelry and spending time with her late Shih Tzu "Cuddles" Trish was well known for her Christmas parties and decorations. Her true occupation was a professional sales lady that would never take No for an answer and marveled at talent in everything from insurance to vacation ownership. Before becoming a parent herself she was a foster parent and helped raise many children that were not her own. Trish was loved by many and will be truly missed.

Survivors include her husband of 41 years, Jeffrey Helms; siblings, Charlene and Richard Wooten; daughters, Shannon Stamey and Jenna Y. Helms; a son, Joshua Helms and granddaughters, Savannah Helms and McKayla Stamey.

A memorial service will be held at 2:00 PM Saturday, January 7, 2017 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel with Reverend Jake Young officiating.

The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service.

“ Trish was a wonderful person! I was truly blessed to know her. One Christmas she made me a homemade chocolate cake just because. I always enjoyed having a conversation with her and loved her passion for everything that she did. She will be missed.
