“ Pat was actually my moms young cousin, daughter of my Granfmothers youngest sister. She was 10 yrs older then I and I remember wishing I could be just like her when I grew up. She could not have been kinder, sweeter, or more fun! When she met Al and they were dating, I remember my Aunt Mary saying , they were in her parlor talking and giggling for hours. They were true soul mates, devoted to each other! Over the years, after they moved to SC I mostly heard about Pat from my mom or Al when he visited. After my Mom died in 2015, I would check in with her 2or 3 times a year. Always a joy to talk to and to reminisce with. Good know she is happy to be reunited with Al and the rest of her family and friends. Rest in n peace, Pat
