So sad to hear of my friend, Patty's passing. We had some good times as teenagers and I remember the brightness in her eyes that gave me so much joy to be around her. She will be missed and I know heaven has gained a beautiful soul, inside and out.

“ I am saddened to hear of Patty's passing. She was a terrific person and I am proud to call her friend. Not only did we go to school together, our dad's passed same time. That gave us an even closer bond. She fought the good fight, she ran the race, it is now her time to rest. So go rest high Patty until we meet again one day. To the family, may God give you strength, courage, and peace during the coming days and weeks. May He also keep you wrapped in his loving embrace. Love to all, sincerely Annette C. Bratcher

“ Patty,

I hope you know how thankful I am for everything you've done for me. Your heart and compassion are something I can only hope to have throughout my life. I hope at the end, when it's my time to go home, that people can say the things about me that I can say about you. You were so much more to me than a landlord, the 7 years we shared together. I hope not one day passed, where you didn't know how much you meant to me.

*I love you,
