“ Your mother was such a beautiful person who was generous with her time. She volunteered at CHS, when I was teaching there. She helped so many of my students with reading. She was always so positive and interested in their well being. I was blessed to know her and call her my friend. My sincerest regards to all of your family who is missing her today. She made an impact on so many lives. ❤️

“ What wonderful memories I have of both of your parents and each of you! Your father was one of my favorite teachers at CCU as he taught me to love Shakespeare and your mother was such a positive and happy person each time I talked with her. Later, I was so blessed to teach you during my time at CHS. My prayers are with you all as we celebrate the legacy of your mother and your father.

“ *Our loss is heaven's gain.
I hit the sister-in-law lottery with Pat. In addition to being family, we grew to become close friends.
The most non-judgmental person I knew, Pat was a blessing to those she met. Caring, wise, and kind, she was always there for others. She was a devoted daughter to her folks, a supportive sister to Skip, a loving wife to Don, a proud mother to Chris, Don, & Sara, a grandmother who truly delighted in the role, a reliable friend and neighbor . . . and so much more.
Pat understood that we are gifts to each other.
She was a perfect model of why we were put on earth.
Pat's life was truly a walk with God.
I shall miss and love her.
Always.*

“ So sorry for your loss. Your mom was such a wonderful person to all she encountered. We still remember with great fondness the Passover Seder that she had us conduct at St James Catholic Church in Conway in 2002 (our oldest Elijah was 4 at the time). It turned out to be the most inspirational Seder I had led or participated in, and she was the reason for that. She will be truly missed and much remembered.
