“ Our Mermaid Sisters are deeply saddened at the loss of our beautiful Patty. Last year, we lost Ann Duke and Sandra Johnson, so our numbers are dwindling, but not the love we have for each other. Patty was a vibrant part of our lives and we all stay very active and do lots of fun things, which she was always up for. As her illness progressed, her faithful friend, Sally Hutchison picked her up for our weekly Mermaid gatherings until she just became too ill. I still remember her at Cotillion, the horse race, the Pawleys Fish fry each year by the Barnacles (husbands of the Mermaids)...just anything going on and as she said "staying in the loop". Patty will be with each one of her Mermaid sisters in our hearts, even though she swam away to a more beautiful place. We love you Patty and are so thankful you touched our lives in such a positive way for so many years. Donna Raye Skeen, Bet Barrineau, Judi Abbott, Gail Baldwin, Pat Nash, Sally Hutchison, Adele Hewitt, Cindy Goss, Selena Harrison, Linda Canada, Neda Loud, Babs McIntosh, plus our Mermaids who swam away first: Ann Duke and Sandra Johnson and our Mermaids who moved away: Genie Sullivan, Shirley Gay and Martha Clarke We all love you and hope your family will remember all your smiles and goodness for the rest of their lives, just as your Mermaid Sisters will.
