

Patricia (PJ) Spillars

May 13, 1942 - July 22, 2019

Patricia (PJ) Spillars, age 77, of Myrtle Beach, died Monday, July 22, 2019 at Conway Medical Center.

Born in Madison, WI, PJ retired from the Department of Defense, where she served as a Contracting Specialist with 42 years of service. She also served as an Equal Opportunity Officer (EEO). She married her husband in September 1970, Ret. CMSgt. Wyllis R. Spillars. They traveled the world with assignments in Germany, Italy, Florida, Arizona, California, and Myrtle Beach and lived in Illinois, South Carolina and Wisconsin. She received many awards for her efforts in helping people. Her motto was "Treat people as you would want to be treated." She was a true warrior for human rights.

PJ was preceded in by her parents; and her son, Wyllis Joseph Spillars.

PJ loved people and never met a stranger. She is cherished by her loving husband, Wyllis R. Spillars; daughter, Teresa Garcia; grandchildren, Ismael, Landon, Mason, Kyler, Marisa, and Kara Rose; one great grandson, Harold Jr.; and a brother, Mike and several nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be 6:00 pm, Monday, July 29, 2019 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel, with Rev. Steven Barfield officiating.

“ Teresa, although I didn't know your Mom...I am very sorry to learn of this loss by your family. While reading about her, it is obvious to me, and others I'm sure, that the many good traits you display are a direct reflection of her. So, maybe I did have the honor of knowing her slightly through you.

“ *Mike & Beth Ryan,
Our thoughts and prayers are will you at this time, PJ will be greatly missed we have such memories of playing LCR, PJ took home our money most of the time. The best times were at Mike's house when Willie and PJ stayed there. We had great food and fun times.
Pj was Mike's KB and she was good at it. Thoughts are with you, Willy, Theresa and all.*

“ Sure going to miss you dear cousin. I remember mom's stories of babysitting you and calling you "brat"! I'll bet she was one too. Love to you....and lots of love to Willy, Theresa and the rest of the family.
