“ I knew Patty Samaha in sophomore and junior when I was a student at O'Connell High School in Arlington Virginia. I remember visiting her in her home near 7 corners, Va. She was an exceptional human being and loved by all. She exuded kindness and grace all the time. I never saw her angry. I know she is in the company of heaven as we speak. Thank you Patty for being the person you are. I see your face before me know and send you blessings and light.
