Surfside Beach

Patrick Brian Kohlmann

Patrick Brian Kohlmann, 20 of Surfside Beach, passed away Monday, October 19, 2015.

A student at the College of Charleston, Patrick was a proud and dedicated South Carolina Ambassador for Stomp Out Bullying. He was a gifted singer and musician who never met a stranger, was a friend to all and loved to give Free Hugs and High Fives. Patrick is predeceased by his grandparents, Harold Kohlmann, Sr and Mary and Howard Cronin.

Patrick is survived by his loving parents, Beth and Harry Kohlmann, Surfside Beach; his loving siblings, Keith Kohlmann and his wife Mae, NY; Kimberly Kohlmann, NJ; Kohl Kohlmann, CO; Ryan Kohlmann, Surfside Beach; nephews, Ethan and Bradley Kohlmann; Grandmother, Lorraine Kohlmann, NY; numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

A Celebration of Patrick's Life will be held 9:30 AM, Saturday, October 24, 2015 at St. Michael Catholic Church with Deacon Peter Casamento and Fr. Ed Fitzgerald officiating. The family will receive friends at the funeral home 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM Friday, October 23, 2015 with a prayer service at 7:00 PM.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Stomp Out Bullying at www.stompoutbullying.org

The family requests that everyone wear a blue shirt Saturday to the memorial service in memory of Patrick and his love and dedication to the Stomp Out Bullying campaign.

“ I'm so sorry Mr & Mrs Kohlmann. No parent should ever have to go through this. Never in a million years would any of us had expected this to happen. My deepest prayers and condolences are with you. Patrick was a great kid. I was bullied really badly in high school and he was one of the few people that were nice to me. He made getting through school a little easier. I will never forget that. His smiling face will always be in our hearts. He did so much for people. He was selfless, kind, and an all around awesome person. Fly high, my friend.

“ The first time I ever spoke to Patrick and the Kohlmann family was when our incredible bond began. Patrick had gone through so much having been bullied and after one conversation I learned just how amazing he was. He was talented, funny, smart, sensitive, smart, caring -- he was a light to every life he ever touched. He called me at 11PM one night to tell me that a girl called him to say that his anti-bullying video stopped her from taking her life. He was so humble and proud! Sometimes kids can drive you crazy -- not Patrick! He was not just a Teen Ambassador to STOMP Out Bullying, he became family - as all of the Kohlmann's have become.

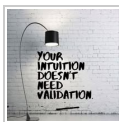

Patrick was always thoughtful and sweet. And every phone conversation ended with "Love you!" He was only on this earth a short time. I don't know why because he had so much to give and the world needed to know Patrick Brian Kohlmann! "Love You" Patrick!

To Beth, Harry, Ryan and the rest of the family - - my love and prayers are with you during this very difficult and painful time. Always, always here for you!! "Love You" -- always!

Beth, Harry & Ryan & Family, I can remember Patrick as a little boy, playing baseball, swimming and having fun with all the kids in our neighborhood. I remember the BBQ's at your home in West Islip, watching the boys having fun, & the weekend at Shelter Island, he was such a loving child, the years have past, but the memories will never leave us, may his memory be a Blessing & comfort to your entire family

*Dear Beth and Harry,
I was so shocked to hear of the passing of Patrick! I can't even imagine the pain you all must be feeling. I watched him grow up at Nivils even before you all moved down. He grew into such a fine young man with such a contagious smile. Please know you all are in our prayers. Every day I miss my mom but what gets me through each day is I focus on the happy memories we shared and created as a family. May those happy memories you all shared be a source of strength and guidance in the days ahead!!
