“ I had the great honor of teaching Patrick when he was in the 9th grade. He was an awesome student and I enjoyed his surfing stories. I will always remember Patrick's bright eyes and how he would laugh and try to explain surfing techniques to me. His happy smile always lit up the classroom. He often showed me photos taken of him while he was surfing, which was truly a passion for him. I will keep your family in thought and prayer.##imported-begin##Holly Sasser##imported-end##

“ To the family of Patrick: I had the privilege of getting to know Patrick through my son, Neil Buckman and his friends. I had Patty in and out of my home a few times this summer and I always enjoyed his company. He was always a true friend to my son and I always appreciated that. He is going to missed by so many. Please know they you are all in my prayers and that Patty will live on the hearts of so many. To Patty: I just wanted you to know that I still just can't hardly believe you're gone. I'll miss coming in and finding your crazy self sitting in my living room with Neil and the rest of the kids. And, I'll miss you walking up to me when you saw me out and about and giving me a hug. You were a true friend to Neil and he is going to miss you something awful. We love you!###imported-begin###Karrie Buckman###imported-end###
