“ Mona and Family This Is Mike and Anita Eades in Princeton. I think of you guys every time we go by your old home. Ed and I were playing golf at the Elks one day and I shanked a ball said a few choice words and threw my iron. Ed said now calm down Mike that won't help a thing. A couple of holes later he did the same thing and beat his iron into the ground. I looked over at him and He never said a word. And I will never forget when you all had the place at Conrads. We came down, went swimming at the cliffs and went striper fishing that nite. Brought a mess back and you cooked them up and we had them for lunch and those were the best fish I have ever eaten. Great Memories. Please accept our sincere sympathy on his passing.

“ The first time I met Paul was outside his residence tending to his tomato plants. He was determined to have the best tasting tomatoes in MB. He found that gardening on the Grand Strand is challenging. The soil isn't as good as WV, he'd say. I'd heard he wanted to bring WV soil here so his tomatoes would taste great. I don't know if that happened but Year after year he'd plant earlier and earlier bc he wanted to pick the first tomatoe and eat the best. He loved his garden. I'll miss my conversations with Paul, bc of his neighborly character and persistence of helping me out when my husband was out of town. I could count on my trash being rolled to the curb before the sun went down. It was a pleasure to be his neighbor. RIP Paul. The Lord loves you and so do I. Your neighbor, Cheryl & Mike Chmilewski.
