“ Lanell, Jeannie & family,
Paul was an extremely kind and generous Gentleman who exemplified a True Christian walk. Not only did he love his family, but Living Water Baptist Church as well. I was formerly privileged to serve with him as a trustee and deacon at the church and always enjoyed his wisdom and desire to help others. His faithfulness will definitely be missed by everyone, as well as Brenda and myself. Our thoughts and prayers will be with the family this week and in the days to come.

“ Paul was such a pleasure to be around...always had a big smile and a hug for everyone! I remember when I first started going to Living Water, he was the first person to visit us! It meant so much to me! He had a way of making you feel special and he made the BEST Pumpkin rolls ever, he even shared his pecans with me last year when I ran out.... Sure gonna miss him!! Much love and prayers to Lanell and the Brooks family!

Paul and Lanell always made us feel so welcome at church. Paul was so kind remembering my birthday in the choir room. He always came around and shook everyone's hand on Wed & Sun. Lanell & family if there is anything any of us at church can do, please let us know. Paul will sure be missed but I know God has a wonderful Angel to sing with tonight. RIP
