“ Paulette, Your Dad was a dedicated Christian that always put the Lord first .The first time I met your Dad I knew he was Saved.You could see the unconditional love in everything he did. He didn't just talk about the Lord he put the love of Christ in action.The customers that came in Western Auto loved your Dad.He was always so kind and friendly to the customers.I know because he was so kind to me.We need more Christians like your Dad.They are hard to find in this sinful world.I know you are hurting but remember your Dad is in Heaven waiting for you.According to the Bible we read "absent from the body is present with the Lord".We have that wonderful promise.I am praying that the Holy Spirit will give you peace and comfort.Until Jesus Comes,Ricky S. Donaldson Pastor of Northside Baptist Bladenboro N.C.

Ms. hilda, Paulette, and Delois I am so sorry to hear about Mr. McDowell. He was a blessed person I know that you all will miss him . Its hard to lose a daddy and I'm sure a husband as far as the daddy part I understand oh so much dads gone now almost 10 years but there is not a day that I wish him beside me and they are sometimes it feels like he is here holding me up and saying little girl im here just listen close and there will be days you can here him or catch a vision. God hasn't taken them its just a little harder to see but I truly believe they are watching above. Lets just remember to be what they wanted us to be children of God and to live every day that daddy would say THATS MY GIRL. With all my Love ,Linda Elliott Fowler
